MUNICIPALITIES APPROVING SHARE IN HOSP. DEFICIT

One township has passed a resolution to pay its share of York County hospital's $11,000 deficit in 1951 and at least two others are expected to do the same at their next council meetings.

Whitchurch township council passed a resolution at a meeting last Saturday to approve payment of its share. East Gwillimbury council had a busy agenda at its last regular meeting and did not have time to discuss the proposal but it is believed that council favors a grant to the hospital. North Gwillimbury councillors are also said to be in favor of paying the township share.

Municipalities in North York were asked by the hospital board to share in the reduction of the deficit at a meeting of representatives at Sharon several weeks ago. The hospital's actual deficit is around $60,000 but municipalities were asked to pay off $11,000, each municipality's share being in proportion to the number of patients it sent to the hospital in 1951.

Newmarket approved of paying its share of over $2000.

EXCEED OBJECTIVE

St. Faith's Lodge Buys Aubrey Davis Home

The home of the late Aubrey Davis on Millard Ave., Newmarket, was purchased today by the board of St. Faith's Lodge, Toronto, it was announced by Mrs. H. Arnold Ward, president. The final arrangements were completed this morning after negotiations over the past two months or so.

The home will be known as Warrendale in memory of the late Mrs. H. D. Warren who was former president of the board. St. Faith's Lodge is a member of the Community Chest of Greater Toronto.

Mrs. Ward said the purpose of Warrendale was to provide a specialized residential center for 15 adolescent girls who have no satisfactory home of their own. These are girls with normal personalities who can benefit from group living.

Warrendale will begin operations later on this summer after a few alterations to comply with government fire regulations have been completed.

In Newmarket, a number of persons, exceeding 30, have been typed and registered and since there were no more volunteers, the registration and typing on regular nights was given up.

A large group from the Bradford Lions club is coming to Newmarket next Monday night to be registered and typed. Dr. John Dales, a member of the blood bank committee, said that a group of 30 members of the Aurora Junior Chamber of Commerce was enlisted in 15 minutes for mass registration next Thursday night. Last year the Islanders drew a large crowd of fans from this district and as far away as Lindsay and Peterborough. Money raised by the dance went a long way to support the Optimists' work during the year. The funds assisted the boys' work activities including league baseball and hockey programs.

College Grads' Anniversary This Weekend

The 25th anniversary of the opening of Pickering College in 1927 by Joseph McCulley, then headmaster, and the 110th anniversary of the founding of the school will be marked by an "old boys" anniversary celebration this weekend.

Nearly 150 grads and their wives are expected to be at the school over the weekend. A banquet is being held on Saturday night and there will be a golf tournament, softball game and other sports activities and entertainment.

Chairman of the banquet Saturday night will be Harry Peace, president of the old boys' association. Present headmaster, R. E. K. Rourke, and former headmaster, Joseph McCulley, now deputy-commissioner of Canadian penitentiaries, will be on hand.

Pickering was founded 110 years ago by the Society of Friends at West Lake, Prince Edward County. Later the school was moved to Pickering, Ont. The present building was erected in Newmarket in 1908 after a fire at Pickering, Ont., and it operated as a Quaker co-educational school until the first world war.

Joseph McCulley re-opened Pickering College in 1927 and he was headmaster for 20 years. Although the present school is non-denominational, it has retained a Quaker philosophy.

"Quakerism is the vital source of the philosophy of life and education at Pickering; tolerance and respect for each human being as an individual are prominent among the ideals of the college. Pickering excludes no one because of his race or creed."

This was a quotation from a commentary on the school's chapel services.

Students from nearly every country in the western hemisphere and from other parts of the world have attended the school in the past 25 years.

Council Considers New Govt. Scheme For Housing Here

"Members of town council have agreed to look into a new federal-provincial government subsidized housing scheme where rents would be determined by tenants' incomes. Each tenant in such a subdivision which has been offered to Newmarket, would be permitted to pay no more or less than one fifth of the family income in rent."

"This is the best housing scheme I have seen brought out yet," declared Mayor Joseph Vale at a special council meeting last Friday afternoon. A representative from the Department of Planning and Development, Wilfred Scott, said that the scheme had just been approved and that so far, it has been offered only to two municipalities, Dunnville and Newmarket.

Newmarket has municipally-owned land available at present for a 45-house subdivision. The land, south of Eagle St. on the western limits of town, has already been surveyed and lots have been staked out.

Renting of the houses would be managed by a local Housing Authority of citizens appointed by the province with the guidance of council. No elected person could be a member of the authority.

The Housing Authority would decide what families could rent the houses. The town would have to make a policy to stipulate whether non-residents could rent the houses or not. The province stipulates that the houses be rented only to families with children.

The average rent needed to finance the subdivision. Some families would be paying above or below the average. If the averages could not be maintained to the figure set, subsidization would be increased; if the average were over the set figure, the subsidy would be decreased.

According to Mr. Scott, government housing schemes which are not subsidized have been abandoned because they compete with private enterprise. This new type of scheme, he said, has been in use in several European countries including England, Holland and Sweden and the United States.

If the average rent figure is set at $50 a month, the average family would have a $250 a month income but it was stated that the government would put on a restriction so that no family with an income of more than $300 a month could rent. Some families could pay as low as $30 a month.

The mayor said that the council's motion for further investigation into the scheme would at least "get the ball rolling". A signing of an agreement to start a subdivision would come later.

Mayor Says Should Make More Money On Town Hall; Opposed

There were different opinions about being charitable towards community dancing, drama, art shows, bingos and other town activities in council meeting last Monday night. When it came down to paying off the high insurance premiums on the town hall, Mayor Vale was in favor of not being so charitable.

"We pay a premium every year of $583 for insurance on the town hall and according to the records, we took in no more than $275 in rental fees from organizations which used the auditorium," said the mayor. "I am in favor of putting a higher rental charge so that the auditorium at least pays what it is costing us."

Councillor Boyd said that "a lot of people would complain about a higher charge." The mayor pointed out that lectures and meetings would not create high insurance rates but dancing, concerts and bingos "produce a terrific insurance rate".

He said that there should be a charge of at least $25 a night.

Reeve Arthur D. Evans said "There are other things in the town hall: the magistrate's court offices, the police and the town clerk's office and revenues are received from them in addition to community organizations."

Councillor Dales took up the cause for the town organizations. "A lot of organizations couldn't continue to put on activities if the rent were increased," he said. "You might impose higher charges on some organization putting on a dance but as for the dramatic club, dancing classes, art club, they depend on the auditorium to put on their work. They should be encouraged. After all, it is still a community not entirely a business which this council is running."

Newmarket Art Club Members Show Work At Spring Show

The Newmarket Art Club is presenting its Spring Show at the Newmarket town hall Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Mayor Joseph Vale will open the show with the club's president, W. J. Hopkinson. The show will consist solely of the work of the members of the club who will be present during the show to discuss their work with the visitors.

The local club boasts many active painters in its membership. The president of the club, Mr. Hopkinson, has been painting for close to 50 years. He started as a lad in England where he painted under Walter White, R.A., and has been associated with such artists as Max Andrews, J. W. Beatty, Len Brooks and Don Fraser. He has had pictures hung at the R.C.A., O.S.A. and C.N.E. shows. He works in oils, water colors and with line drawings.

Balfie Bradley, vice-president, is a comparative newcomer to the club. He has been painting for the last 15 years with the exception of seven years during the war. His work is in contrast with that of other members of the club as far as technique is concerned. He was helped and instructed by the Peterboro artist, K. J. Dineson.

Ruby Haskett, secretary of the club, is a beginner who under the tutelage of Bob Chadwick, a showing considerable promise. Chadwick himself has been painting for the past 25 years and has had pictures accepted by the R.C.A., O.S.A., and the National Gallery Trans-Canada tour.

Doris Gibney has been painting for the last ten years and presents a variety of contributions. She has studied at the Doon Summer School and has been a member of the club for some years. Mrs. Walter Stephens, one of the original members of the club, will have paintings in the show but may be unable to be present because of ill-health.

Henry Burnham, a newcomer to Newmarket, is graduate of the Ontario College of Art and spent three months at the Pennsylvania Academy. He has painted under the direction of J. W. Beatty.

Dorothy Bowman is another new contributor to the show although she has been painting for the last ten years or so. Kathie MacKay, Lillian Rank, with 15 years of painting experience, Dave Riddell, Duncan Beatty, Jean Walton and Doug Cockburn, the latter two both students of the Doon Summer School, and Margaret and Marion Winters are other contributors.

The club has extensive plans for new activities in the succeeding months and is anxious for the support of the public in its efforts.

Women's Aid

November, 1923 - September, 1940

Instalment No. 2

The winter carnival at the arena was a very gala affair in February of 1926. "Mrs. A. J. Davis had secured the Toronto Skating Club who would give the evening performance of fancy skating free of charge except for their travelling expenses."

In view of this generosity, the ladies of the Aid decided to serve the visitors their supper in one of the class rooms of Trinity United church which also afforded dressing rooms if they needed to change costumes. The following menu for the supper was decided upon: roast chicken with dressing, boiled ham, scalloped potatoes, lettuce, celery, salads, pickles, cranberry sauce, jellies, home-made rolls and butter, bread, apple pie and ice cream, cakes, dark and light, and tea.

As if the production of such a meal were not a big enough undertaking, these indefatigable women organized a booth at the arena where they sold coffee, sandwiches and home-made pies—no less than 30 of them. Apparently the services of the Aid to the community were being recognized and encouraged as witness the minutes for February 23, 1926: "That letters of thanks be sent to the Toronto Skating Club for their very fine entertainment; to the management of the arena for the free use of same; to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davis who secured the Skating Club for the Auxiliary; to the Newmarket Band who gave their services free and to the Board of Trinity United church for use of one of the school rooms to serve the supper."

It would seem that various individuals and societies had approached the Aid for sewing projects because when Mrs. Howard Cane suggested "that the Auxiliary have cards made with the standard sizes of the different articles of linen printed on them, these cards to be given to the different societies or persons interested in helping the hospital," a motion to this effect was made and carried.

In Mr. Walter Eves' article, "The History of York County Hospital," he notes that the year 1926 was a very trying one in the history of the institution. Because of the impossibility of extending the hospital, situated as it was in Dr. Dales' home on Main Street, the Hospital Board had appointed a committee the previous year to see if a more suitable property could be found. The beautifully situated E. S. Cane property with its large grounds had finally been selected and by spring of 1926 it had been decided to issue bonds to promote the purchase of this property.

Unfortunately, difficulty was encountered in finding subscribers and on June 10, 1926, we note that "the President, Mrs. McLennan, called a meeting of the executive of the Women's Auxiliary at her home at 8 p.m. Mr. J. F. Harvey, president of the Hospital Board, addressed the executive in regard to the hospital bonds, which are on the market, soliciting the help of the Auxiliary in suggesting likely purchasers to members of the Board."

Even with the ladies helping, the prospects of financing the project were so poor that according to Mr. Eves' account, the Board voted to close the hospital on August 14 and store the equipment. This action, apparently, was what was needed to spur the community to greater efforts and we find that by the end of July "it was reported that new efforts on behalf of the sale of bonds and subscriptions were proving effective and that it is believed the money required would be raised."

It would appear, however, that the ladies of the Aid were never really in doubt about the outcome because at a meeting held at the end of June it was moved that "a hammock be purchased for the use of the nurses," and the purchasing committee made arrangements to go to Sharon for the purpose of buying a quantity of goose feathers for pillows. Mention is also made here, for the first time, taken from the "Mite Box" which had been installed at the door of the local theatre.

No meetings were held in July or August—a decision which set a precedent for the following years—but at their first Autumn meeting the ladies took stock of themselves. They were now a going concern, having raised the money for and distributed throughout the hospital much-needed equipment of all types to the value of many hundreds of dollars, so that "the need of a constitution and by-laws for the Auxiliary were discussed, and it was moved that Mrs. Norma McLennan, Mrs. Jessie Hewson and Miss Olive Niles act as a committee to draw up by-laws and present same at the next meeting."

The meeting day was also changed to the first Tuesday of each month. The constitution was adopted, and a very adequate one it was, and the ladies were legally in business. It is interesting to note with regard to this year's (1926) house to house canvass "the canvassers all spoke of the kindly manner in which they were received."

At this same meeting it was moved "that this Aid join the Ontario United Hospital Aids Association—the fee is only $1.00 per year." Mrs. McLennan, the president, in presenting her annual report in November, "spoke of the trying conditions under which the Women's Auxiliary carried on (through the past year) owing to the uncertainty as to whether the hospital work was to be continued in Newmarket or not."

"However, a brighter day is dawning. The Hospital Board has purchased a beautiful property, now undergoing alterations and re-building, will make, when completed, a hospital for which we will be proud to work, and for which our untiring efforts will be required. A greater number of patients can be accommodated, more nurses will be required and a much greater quantity of supplies, for which we hold ourselves accountable, will be needed. To be able to meet these demands we must increase our working force. . . we must endeavor to co-operate with the Hospital Board and bend our effort to work in harmony for the support of our hospital in its work of relieving suffering and distress"—surely a proper creed for a most worthy organization!

With the rising walls of the new hospital and its multitudinous needs ever before them, the Aid opened the new year in a great flurry of social activities—teas, showers, (anything from blankets to face cloths was acceptable), chain bridges, dramatic presentations two theatre nights, concerts, Violet Day—then on the evening of February 14, came the devastating fire which destroyed the central portion of the nearly completed building.

When they might have been expected to express discouragement, this loss by fire seemed really to bring home to the members of the Aid the great necessity for still further efforts and there was no diminishing of activity. They cheerfully accepted their self-imposed duty of supplying the old hospital with its complete supply of linens, blankets, china, cutlery and emergency equipment, while laying aside money and supplies for the new building. The entire proceeds of this year's garden party—always the biggest money-making project in the overall program—were to be handed over to the Hospital Board and earmarked for equipment and furnishings for the new hospital.

"The Board has asked if the ladies would furnish the nurses' reception room, also purchase a hot-water sterilizer with a still for the operating room," this last item at a cost of $520.12. Then at last, the minutes of the meeting of October 4, 1927, note that "the secretary was requested to send the following names to Mr. McCaffrey, secretary of the Hospital Board, to be sent invitations to the opening of the new hospital on October 11: the teachers and pupils of Amsterdam School, North York; Aurora, Mount Albert, Sharon and Newmarket Women's Institutes; Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Sheppard."

The moving into new and adequate quarters must have marked the coming-of-age of this determined group of ladies. It speaks well for them that instead of resting on their hard-earned laurels they seemed to take a new lease on life which inspired them to still greater efforts, and from a reading of the minutes of this Aid, it would seem that the ladies reached the peak of their effort and enterprise during this season of 1927-28.

They had 105 paid-up members, a most able executive, and through the contacts and good public relationship they had built up, the interest and help of practically all the Institutes and organizations in the district. In this respect "Mrs. Howard Cane spoke on behalf of the Women's Institute, who are carrying a double burden in connection with the hospital, having their own ward to furnish and helping with the county as well" and "many appreciative references were made to the generous help given the hospital by the

Canada's legislation and general provision for ex-service men is second to none in the world. Last fall there was an increase in pensions and this week legislation was introduced to increase veterans' allowance.

The veterans' allowance is paid to needy veterans 60 and over, and is also paid to widows and dependents of veterans. A total of 40,000 Canadians receive them.

The current legislation boosts to $50 a month from $40 the allowance payable to a single veteran or a widow, and to $90 from $70 the maximum for a married recipient.

Provision is also made to increase the amount a veteran may earn and still receive the allowance and should bring much comfort and happiness to the homes of many veterans across Canada.

Veterans' legislation in Canada, already recognized as the best in the world, is under constant study and review in the interests of those who have served the country in the armed forces.

Credit Restrictions

The house and country welcome this week the announcement by the minister of finance of the removal of all consumer credit restrictions. The announcement coincided with the release of the report showing a further decline in the cost-of-living index.

The act regulating credit was passed in September, 1950, and the first regulations came into force in November of that year. The regulations were considerably stiffened in March, 1951, and in January this year somewhat relaxed.

It is encouraging that the situation with respect to consumer credit is now such that the government thinks it is safe to suspend all regulations. However, the Act will remain in force and any time conditions warrant the government has Institute." In November of 1927, in recognition of invaluable services rendered "a letter was read from the secretary-treasurer of the Men's Board of the hospital, inviting the Aid to appoint a representative to act on the board. It was decided that our president, Mrs. McLennan, should be the representative."

My mail in recent weeks has included many letters from all parts of North York on a wide variety of subjects. Many are concerned with the outbreak of foot and mouth disease in Western Canada and I hope to deal at length with this subject in a future letter. In the meantime, let me assure you that all resources of the federal and provincial governments are united to fight this dread disease.

In the meantime, thanks for your letters, and we repeat, don't hesitate to write or ask my assistance on any matters pertaining to federal administration. The address is: J. E. Smith, M.P., Parliament Buildings, Ottawa, and no stamp is required.

The senate was discussing a bill to observe Victoria Day on the first Monday prior to May 25 from 1953 on.

Hon. Mr. Haig: To most of us in this chamber Victoria Day means something. To my children and my grandchildren it has no meaning at all. To them it is just a holiday. I can quite understand that. Elizabeth II is going to celebrate her birthday in June, the month in which the late King George VI celebrated his, and we have become accustomed to that procedure. I think the majority of Canadians would enjoy a holiday on a Monday rather than on a Wednesday or Thursday. I can understand that too. In these days of rapid transportation people can easily travel 80 or a 100 miles to their summer homes to enjoy a good weekend, especially when it is a long one. But the nation has always celebrated the Queen's birthday on the 24th of May. Suppose the bill is passed and we celebrate, say, the 19th of May we might have difficulty in explaining to our grandchildren and some of us have grandchildren—why we are celebrating that day.

Hon. Mr. King: As Victoria's birthday.

Hon. Mr. Haig: But that was not her birthday. They know it was on the 24th of May, and they will correct us.

Hon. W. D. Euler: I have just been wondering why we should have this holiday at all.

Hon. T. A. Crerar: Most of our holidays have some significance, and it is rather interesting to note the number of statutory holidays that we now celebrate. I should like to enumerate them. We have Good Friday. No one will question that.

Hon. Mr. Aseltine: Why not have that on Monday?

Hon. Mr. McKee: You overlooked New Year's Day.

Hon. Mr. Crerar: We have now the present Queen's Birthday, which is to be celebrated, I believe, on the 9th of June.

Hon. Mr. Aseltine: Why not have that on a Monday too?

Hon. Mr. Crerar: Of course. And why not have Christmas Day on a Monday, and Dominion Day? There is just as sound an argument for always having each of these holidays on a Monday as there is for always having Victoria Day on a Monday.

But let me continue with the list of statutory holidays. We have Victoria Day, and shall have it as long as the present legislation remains in force. Then we have the 1st of July, which I expect Canadians will celebrate for a long time to come. We have Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, and most cities in Canada now have a civic holiday when all business is suspended.

Hon. Mr. Farris: In Vancouver the stores are closed all day Wednesday.

Hon. Mr. Aseltine: And in Rosetown.

Hon. Mr. McKee: And the banks are closed on Saturdays. Hon. Mr. Crerar: I was about to mention that Saturday is now a bank holiday, and if certain efforts are successful it will soon be a civil service holiday. This practice of regarding Saturday as a holiday is spreading over the country.

Hon. Mr. McKee: Let's make every day a holiday.

Hon. Mr. Crerar: Are we not approaching the stage where we will have as many holidays as work days? I think the time has come when we should look realistically at the question of holidays. . . . I think that instead of passing a bill for the celebration of 24th of May on a Monday, we should repeal the Victoria Day Act altogether.

Hon. W. M. Aseltine: I am one of those who is in favor of Monday holidays, so that I can go fishing over the long weekend. That is important to me.

Hon. Mr. Roebuck: Still young.

Hon. Mr. Aseltine: Nevertheless, I am willing to give up my fishing for one week-end rather than have the birthday of Queen Victoria changed.

Hon. Arthur Roebuck: It is a fine time of the year for a holiday. All over Canada the crocuses are out; in most parts, certainly in Ontario, the wild flowers are in the woods, the grass is nice and green, and we are all glad to get rid of the snow, and the boys and girls want to go out and play in the open. I remember that, when I was young enough, it was a day on which we shed our red woollen underwear. Some of us would also take off our boots and shoes without any great objection on the part of our parents; and if we were hardy enough, we dived into the old swimming pool. It is the time of year when you want a holiday. Somebody said that it is now just another holiday. That is true, but also it is very well-timed, and I am not one of those who believe we have too many holidays. I think they are good things and that they help to develop the health and growth of our youth. As for working, surely we work long enough; and the school children too, because the object of education is not to cram young people with a lot of book learning but rather to develop them, and if they are to grow and expand their powers, holidays are essential.

The annual dance of the Newmarket High School Cadets took place in the Assembly Hall on Friday night of last week. About 150 pupils and ex-pupils were present and a splendid time was reported.

In order to encourage sport among the school children the Newmarket Athletic Association made a donation of $100 for the purchase of bats, balls, lacrosse sticks, etc., to be distributed for the use of the kiddies going to school.

Mr. R. F. Smith, General Supt. of the Office Specialty Mfg. Co., also Mr. Joe Brammer, Chairman of the Safety First Committee, and Mr. G. E. Ayers of the First Aid Dept., attended the Annual Convention of the Industrial Accident Preventive Association held at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto.

The Warren Paving Company, which has done all the paving in Town so far, has received the contract for the paving of Botsford Street and it is expected that they will commence work this week.

MAY 16, 1902

North York Ag. Society directors are now completing arrangements for their annual excursion. It has been decided to go to some point in Muskoka this year—possibly Bracebridge.

The new roll returned to the Clerk shows a total increase in assessment of Newmarket of $6,835. The total population is given at 2,378, an increase of only 12. There are 179 horses, 114 dogs, 79 cattle, 67 hogs, 20 sheep and 16 steam boilers. Only three or four appeals have been filed against the assessment.

Mr. Elias Armitage sold his brick residence on Eagle St., on Tuesday, to Mr. H. Case of Whitechurch. Mr. Armitage intends to go to Manitoba next month.

The Ontario Bank will open at 9 o'clock on Saturday mornings for the convenience of their patrons, until further notice.

Mr. Richard Kirton has been carrying his arm in a sling the past week, owing to a strain which he received while loading some lumber at the farm on Thursday of last week.

THURSDAY, THE FIFTEENTH DAY OF MAY, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-TWO

LOW RENTAL HOUSING

The proposal for low-rental housing which is being studied by Newmarket town council offers many advantages. It will provide much needed accommodation in Newmarket and will put to use land owned by the town along Eagle St. There are two major disadvantages, however, which should be studied closely before the town commits itself. The first is that the town will be expected to subsidize the taxes on the sub-division. The second is that the taxes will be fixed by an authority outside the council. Neither practice is desirable.

It is intended that the homes will be rented on a basis of income. The provincial and federal governments will provide the difference between the cost of the sub-division and the income from it. The town will assess the sub-division in terms of the rent paid with the government again making up the difference up to 17 percent. Beyond that, the town will absorb the loss itself.

The rents will be set by an independent housing authority within limits imposed upon the authority by the provincial government. Since taxes will be determined by rents, the town will have little say in the taxes which it will receive.

The questions which these practices raise are: to what extent should the rest of the town be required to subsidize housing; to what extent should the town allow a separate authority to set the taxes.

We freely grant that these questions are, for the present anyway, somewhat academic since there is every assurance that the town will lose little income from the arrangement. But once it is provided for, the way is opened for practices which are undesirable in principle and could be expensive in practice.

The question is somewhat aggravated by the potential need for increased school facilities. It is intended to rent these homes to Newmarket families only and so at first glance, there would not seem to be any need for increased school facilities. But there is every likelihood that much of the accommodation vacated by families moving into the new homes will in turn be rented or bought by outside families. Ultimately, the new homes will mean an increased population.

If these new homes could be freely taxed, in time a new school would be paid for in an equitable manner but with taxes limited, it means that a larger share of the cost must be paid for by the rest of the town. Nor must it be forgotten that the increased population will require increased services such as police.

There is a definite need for low-rental housing. Apparently, it can only be provided by subsidies since a new home cannot be built to rent at low cost without subsidies. The question remains, however, of to what extent a municipality should be asked to assume a share of such subsidies. That should be the major consideration in the council's study of the proposal.

ABSURD SITUATION

The situation which now exists on the Newmarket public school board is absurd. The members of the board have had adequate time to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of the chairman, Mr. Herbert Atkins. When the issue came to a vote, however, it was a tie. One member was sick. His would have been the deciding vote. The issue was held over to the next meeting. Yet at that same meeting, members expressed doubt that the missing member would resume his seat on the board, that his ill-health might force his resignation too.

There is absolutely no need for the delay in the appointment. If there is a difference of opinion on a successor to Mr. Atkins, the ballot provides an adequate answer. Mrs. Caroline Ion, defeated candidate in the election, is the obvious choice. She polled only 14 votes less than the present chairman. Surely that entitles her to consideration by the whole board.

There is, unfortunately, no set precedent in Newmarket for choice of a successor to a member of the board who resigns in mid-term. In the past, appointments to the board have been made with no consideration of defeated candidates. Yet the practice generally followed elsewhere has been to name the defeated candidate to the vacancy. Is there any reason why it shouldn't be followed here?

The board would be performing a service to the ratepayers if it were to cease its bickering, make the obvious appointment, and at the same time, set a sensible precedent for boards of the future to follow.

The state is the servant, not the master, of the people; the state is their guarantee against infringement on their rights, their agent in international and national issues; it is not the function of the state to assume the direction of those activities which rest on individual choice.

Office Cat Reports Catnips By Ginger

An Intimidate Message from "Park Avenue" Bliggens, Noted Graft Expert and Cousin of Contributing Columnist, our own Slim Bliggens.

Kingpins of the O'Dryer mayoralty regime in good old New York has been named by Cumming A. Cross, a well known convicted bookie and real smooth operator here as havin' accepted "political contrabutions".

Willie "Saltie" O'Brine, former police commissioner, Everett Graftin, eleventh deputy flatfoot commissioner, and James Stepton Towes, former first deputy fire commissioner, was so designated by Cross at the opening of the trial of seven plain clothes dicks accused of accepting bribes.

Cumming A. Cross was believed to be gambling for a reduction of his 13-year jug sentence.

Talkin' free-like in a six hour session in Joisey Burrow Hall, this here bookie presented a sharp contrast to his button-tipped refusal on Sept. 32, 1951, to testify in criminal court proceedings, thus wrecking the carefully prepared case of Dist. Attorney Miles F. Testimoni against 18 flatfoots.

Details of his operashuns were enough to startle even the subtle sensibilities of the New York public, which has received far after jar during the past 18 months as trials and grand jury presentments disclosed municipal corruption.

"Even our subtle sensibilities are being startled," complained an average thinking citizen of New York, Looney S. O'Coone, billboard palace manager here. "We is received jars after jars of this stuff."

Cross named 120 dicks as receiving protection money. His operating cost ran "about $2,000 a month for each spot." His "horse rooms" took between $1,500 to $2,000 a day, some as high as $10,000. To protect these large operations, there were large-scale police pay-offs.

There must be more practical ways of preparing a field for spring and summer.

BURNING OFF GRASS

There were some evenings in the past month when the western sky was hazy with the smoke of a hundred burnings as land was cleared of the last season's dead vegetation. It is a little late to remark on the matter, but here are a few statistics to store up against next spring when the fires are lighted again.

According to Audubon's book, "Conservation and Nature Activities", following an experiment in grass burning, hay yield was reduced from 52 percent to 71 percent over the previous year; water run-off increased from five to 30 times and soil erosion speeded up four to 11 times. An average of 50 pounds of nitrogen to the acre is contained in the top three or four inches of humus. Burning not only chars the humus, making it susceptible to blowing off, but the heat from the fire turns the nitrogen to gas which is released from the soil and lost.

It adds up to a pretty expensive undertaking in loss of soil fertility, not to mention the risk of loss of property, even lives. Two cars crashed head-on along one Ontario highway when smoke from a grass fire obscured their drivers' vision. Several persons were injured. And all this spring, district fire companies have been called out to protect buildings against the threat of a swift-running grass fire.

There must be more practical ways of preparing a field for spring and summer.

POLITICS AS BEFORE

The hoof and mouth outbreak in Saskatchewan may well prove one of the most serious blows ever struck at the Canadian economy. Hopes for an early end to the threat of a spread in the disease seem doomed with reports of fresh outbreaks.

Against this background, it is disquieting to read reports from Ottawa, where a federal committee is sitting in judgment on the government's handling of the outbreak, which suggest that the issue is being turned into the kind of committee room circus which is the stock in trade of Washington politicians.

The Globe and Mail carried a report last week on a committee sitting which carried the unedifying headline: "Saskatchewan Election Spurs Political Battle Over Foot-Mouth Disease". According to the story, C.C.F. members are attempting to place the blame for the spread of the disease on the Liberal government so that they can make the latter's fault a campaign issue in the forthcoming provincial election. The Liberals are retaliating with efforts to place the blame on the C.C.F. provincial government.

And because the Conservatives have no political stake in the election, the report continues, they can "afford to sit back and watch with some amusement the jockeying of the Liberal and C.C.F. committeemen" investigating the outbreak.

It is an outrageous insult to the electors that members of a government should seek to turn a serious economic crisis to party advantage. Every resource of the government's should be directed at alleviating the far-reaching effects of the outbreak. Instead, we are treated to the jockeying of politicians for political advantage.

Is it possible that the politicians are unaware of what is happening to the farm economy in Canada as a result of the disease, or what could happen if the outbreaks spread eastwards?

SAVATION ARMY CAMPAIGN

The Salvation Army is in the midst of its annual campaign for funds. We wish the campaign every success. Ever since its founding, the Salvation Army has earned a reputation for its unselfish work among those in want, whether the want was material or spiritual. The Salvation Army operates homes for unwed mothers, for the aged and for orphans and unwanted children.

The Salvation Army has never been afraid to go into slums or danger. Their hostels are built where needed. Their officers work in the courts and jails. During the war, their canteens were as far forward as they could be. The members of the Salvation Army are dedicated to the work of easing human suffering wherever it is found. Help them in this work by contributing to their campaign.

These little misses took part in the Jack and Jill number at the dance recital presented by pupils of Mrs. Charles Gordon in the Newmarket Town Hall. The recital was warmly praised and was given an overflow audience on two nights last week. See also page 8. Photo by Haskett.

Our readers write

Letters to the editor are always welcome but the names of the writers must be known to the editor.

The Editor: I would say "Page London, Washington, Paris, and a dozen other of the topflight capitals, not forgetting Ottawa" with that keen verbal shaft in your editorial columns today: "The government has become one big honey-pot and the flies are clustering about it in ever-growing numbers. Instead of government funds being considered as a sacred trust, they have become fair game to all who wish to pursue it."

Yes, Mr. Editor, the above richly merits the study of all your readers — especially the working "bees" in field as well as factory — the vast majority of whom wouldn't know their way up Parliament Hill but whose labors are the source of every pound of "honey" that ever rolled down that hill. It is clear that the "five-year diesel program" on which the C.N.R. has embarked will do no particular good to the coal industry — just as, along the dairy farming front, the intrusion of margarine could hardly be expected to be enthusiastically welcomed down on the farms. On the other hand, if spread across the nation and (even more important, it seems to this reader) also across the years, these technological changes and trends can conserve the general welfare and need not be too hurtful to established activities. This latter is the job for leadership, and to avoid the disturbances which stem inevitably from trying to do too much in too short a time.

One of the alert farm observers sagely warns, as to the shifting and narrow base upon which the current "horsemeat" stupidity is poised: "It costs twice as much to raise a horse to maturity as it does a steer, and steers bring three or four times as much." And it deserves to be added — a fact which the above writer overlooked — that when the mature horse is just stepping toward the peak of his working career, Mr. Steer is getting a one-way ticket to the abattoir. A Bee.

KETTLEBY

The W.A. and W.M.S. of the Kettleby United Church met in the Hall May 6, at 2:30 p.m., with the president, Mrs. L. V. Heacock, presiding. She was assisted in the worship period by Mrs. L. Tilson, Mrs. E. Blatchford and Mrs. A. Marshall.

Plans were made for cleaning the church and hall and for advertising the play coming from Cookstown Thursday, May 22. See coming events for details. Mrs. Hummel was to have had the topic but owing to illness, was not able to be present. Mr. Hummel kindly took her place and spoke on the Indians of Canada, and expressed the fear that their culture and art is gradually being lost as their skills are not being passed down as they once were.

LAWSON — In loving memory of our dear father, William Craig Lawson, who passed away May 12, 1949. Come unto that light that shines so fair: Gone from the earth of sorrow and care; Resting those hands that did their best, Gone dear father gone to rest. Peacefully sleeping, resting at last. His weary trials and troubles are past; In silence he suffered, in patience he bore, Till God called him home to suffer no more. Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by his daughters Flora and Gertrude.

MONKMAN — In loving memory of a dear mother, Mrs. Thos. Monkman, who passed away May 18, 1936, also a dear father who passed away Sept. 24, 1938. Beautiful memories of those so dear. CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the members of the fire brigades, Newmarket, Mount Albert, Holland Landing, Sutton and Queensville for their gallant work in saving our home. We realize that had the firemen, neighbors and friends not worked so hard and quickly, that all would have been lost. Queensville firemen with their inadequate equipment did a great deal to lessen the fire hazard till the bigger brigades arrived. Queensville men must be especially commended for their bravery and work. We thank all the neighbors, friends and firemen for the wonderful work in removing furniture from the home when it was thought that all would be burned and also restoring it to place when the fire was over. The ladies must be thanked for their help to restore order in the home. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Chapman

The accent is on the Highlands in this number, presented by pupils of Mrs. Charles Gordon in a recital before over-flow audiences in the Newmarket town hall last week. Mrs. Gordon taught the girls, under the sponsorship of the Newmarket Recreation commission. See below.

Dancers Warmly Praised

"A top-rate show," said one. "Reminded me of the famous Rockettes," added another. "There was a 100 percent improvement over last year's performances. The costumes were more lavish; the routines more intricate and the dancers more accomplished."

So ran the praise for the recital presented by Mrs. Charles Gordon's dancing class at the Newmarket Town Hall on Friday and Saturday, May 9 and 10.

The class, comprising nearly 90 local girls is sponsored by the Newmarket Recreation commission. Its recital drew an overflow audience to both performances. The enthusiastic group witnessed a varied program which was presented "round theatre fashion as in the Old Country".

The tap routines, ballet choreography and gym exercises were the original compositions of Mrs. Gordon. She also designed the costumes with the mothers making them.

A physical education march by girls aged nine to 12 opened the program. Little ones, four and five years old, captivated the audience with their Jack and Jill number, a song and rhythm routine. The Jills were costumed in pink poke bonnets, old fashioned dresses with ruffles and matching pantaloons. The Jacks were just as attractive with their blue little Dutch caps with big tassels, long trousers and shirts.

The costumes were outstanding in the following number, "Swanee River". Minstrel in design, they were red jackets, striped trousers and tall hats. Six to nine year olds took part in this tap.

"Balloons in Rhythm" by the teenagers was a rhythmic exercise in which the 14 performers wore short, satin dance costumes in gold and mauve. They were followed by the "Jolly Jesters", nine to 12 years old, who, in their red and green jester costumes performed a ballet number which was very difficult for this age group.

Next came a Scotch tap when 12 and 13 year old girls in their plaid kilts did a number which was outstanding in the perfection of their synchronized movements. The "Tango of the Roses" was performed by June Trivett and Gloria Shropshire in the "Butterfly Ballet," Rose Mary Johns was the ballerina. She was dressed completely in yellow with the other 22 members of the troupe in blue. It was a beautiful number gracefully executed. The butterflies' antennae were spangled with huge sequins which sparkled and twinkled with the changing spot lights.

"Wild Indians," a tap featuring 14 teenagers dressed in bur-lap, feathered headresses and fringed skirts were next on the program. They were followed by "Skipping Ballet" with Rose Mary Johns appearing as ballerina. A duet, "Swinging down the lane," was performed by Arlene Simmons and Janet McNab dressed in drum majorette costumes of white satin with gold trim. The teenagers of the dancing class in black and white costumes presented a tap number, "Slow Poke" and a kicking tap, "Down Yonder".

Dr. C. E. Vandervoort acted as master of ceremonies. The accompanist was Mrs. Gordon. Downward, Wayne Woneh provided a musical interlude with two solos, "Beautiful Days" and "La Goliardina". Gene Garrett sang "Lock Lomond". Mrs. Charles Simmons assisted Mrs. Gordon. Mrs. George Haskett was costume manager.

The children made presentations to Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Downward and Mrs. Simmons. On behalf of the class, Jackie Gordon presented her mother with a travel clock. A similar clock was given to Mrs. Downward by Patsy Walker and Arlene Simmons presented her mother with a jewelry box.

The Recreation commission chairman, Joseph Dales, thanked Mrs. Gordon and her assistants for the excellent work they were doing for the girls of Newmarket. He made a presentation to each of them on behalf of the commission. Mrs. Gordon expressed her appreciation to the Newmarket Legion. They have given the classes the use of the hall every Tuesday throughout the season, light and heat included, without charge as well as allowing them to practice on other occasions free of charge.

Mrs. Gordon said she was very happy with the progress made by the girls in their year's work. She thanked the mothers for their fine cooperation and said that special mention was due to Mrs. Bruce Walker, Mrs. Earby Thompson, Mrs. D. Cowal, Mrs. Thornton, Mrs. Bill Haskett and Mrs. Donald Brown.

New H. and S. Ass'n. Council

Mrs. C. R. Blackstock, Newmarket, was elected a vice-president of the newly formed York-Simcoe Home and School council at the organization meeting in Lansing on Wednesday, May 7. This was the first of a series of meetings which will see the division of the former York County Home and School association into five units.

"It's just like seeing the members of your family grow up and leave home," said Mrs. P. A. McClelland, president of York council. These five smaller units will be more workable and lead to greater efficiency and convenience.

"And we who have been so close to the work for so long view this break with the same mixed feelings as would parents under similar circumstances - glad to see the family doing well for themselves, sorry to see them go," said the head of York family who has been with the council for 10 years, the last two as president.

York council has had a phenomenal growth in both associations and membership since its formation in 1930. Then it had the nucleus of seven associations. Today there are 117 associations with a membership of about 20,000, of whom about one-third are men. It has seven secondary school associations.

Rapid expansion of Greater Toronto, which has brought families out from the city into the suburbs so fast that local school boards could not keep up with building programs is the chief reason for this growth. And to keep pace with the need for future expansion is the reason it has broken up into the five smaller units.

Prior to the division, York council extended over an area bounded by Holland Landing, Markham, Dunbarton and Long Branch. As it was, York council was unwieldy. It was unfair to ask members to come such distances to meetings. This way, councils will be able to give associations within each area more direct help.

NURSES ASSOCIATION

The York County Nurses' association will hold their next gathering in the form of a dinner meeting. It is planned for the first Tuesday in June and will be held at the Ridge Inn. As reservations must be made early any nurses in the district wishing to attend are requested to contact Miss Bertha Tunney for tickets.

Ray Holbrooke.
Mrs. J. D. Taylor, Hamilton, provincial Home and School federation president, was the speaker. She gave a talk on Home and School work. Mrs. Taylor was accompanied by Mrs. McCalley, a member of the Hamilton board of education and an active Home and School worker. Mrs. H. Le-Masurier was elected president of this most northerly section of the old York council. It extends from Steele's Corners to Holland Landing.

THE Calvert SPORTS COLUMN

by Elmer Ferguson

Hockey has faded now into that past which envelopes sports events so rapidly, as seasons overlap, with hockey intruding on football, baseball pushing its way in on hockey. The cheering is a distant echo, the cups have been won and lost, individual feats are entered in the records.

There's an award for almost every individual performance in the major hockey of today, a great many too in the lesser leagues, which is the way it should be. When athletes can rise above the level, and soar to greatness by their own skill and courage and spirit, it's only fair and just that this should be recognized in some tangible fashion.

Unfortunately for one player in the National Hockey League, who did all this, plus, there is no award for a courageous come-back, not even a special notation in the records, which are coldly mathematical, and don't delve into the human side. Yet, if any player deserved some recognition that would entitle him to special notation, special award, that player who should have been worthy in large and generous measure of such recognition would have been Winnipeg's Samuel James "Sugar Jim" Henry, goalie of the Boston Bruins, who survived the buffeting of Fate, survived a fire that scarred his hands and arms, and returned to stardom.

Hockey developed some great figures the past season, but we doubt if any of these is so compelling, so fraught with the rugged romance of sport as the return of Henry to the Big Time. This is pure Hollywood, throughout the piece. A high-voltage script-writer could pen no more gripping drama.

Jim Henry first won a spot in the major league with New York Rangers, in 1941. But his stay there was short, for at the end of his first season, he enlisted in the Army to serve in World War II, remained there until the end of the fighting. Then he returned to hockey, played briefly with Rangers, after which his sports pathway was a dizzy zig-zag lane that seemed to be leading nowhere. Twice he came up to Rangers, alternating with minor league chores. Then to Chicago in the Big Time, then suddenly back to the minors, for three seasons.

This isn't offered as a history of Henry's hockey meanderings. We merely paint it in for background, to prove that, despite vicissitudes, real courage doesn't weaken. Three years in the minors was bad enough, but the worst came in the summer of 1951. A flash fire suddenly enmeshed Henry at a summer resort camp, he was badly burned about the hands and arms. That, you might think, would spell the end of a career in hockey, where hands with speed and certainty are, for goalies, almost as essential as lightning reflexes.

But Henry didn't give up. He reported to the Detroit camp of the Red Wings, for he had played the previous season for Indianapolis, a Detroit farm team. But Indianapolis already had a good goalie, young Hall, so the chances for Henry with his burned hands remaining even in minor hockey looked slim.

But Boston Bruins of the National League needed a goalie. They tried to buy Hall but, against their own judgment, were talked into purchasing Sugar Jim Henry, for a moderate sum. The club started poorly. Boston didn't win a game in its first ten. Henry's job seemed shaky. Then, the team improved, but near the end, seemed to have little chance to make the play-offs for the Stanley Cup. But near the end of the race, Bruins started to roll. They won or tied all but two of their last 12. And the star, the steady influence that back-grounded the drive - that carried them into the finals? Why, none other than Sugar Jim Henry, with his unshaken courage.

There's no prize for come-backs, for those who survive the bludgeoning of fate with head unbowed. If there was, Sugar Jim Henry would be one of the candidates.

MOUNT PLEASANT

The rain early in the week was what all the farmers were very thankful for as most seeding is finished.

Our sympathy goes out to Mr. Wm. Hamilton and family in the loss of a wife and mother.

Dr. Berry of Grimsby and a former minister at Sutton and Mount Pleasant had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Davidson and attended Mt. Pleasant church in the afternoon, also meeting many of his old friends.

Bible study at Mr. Alex Hopkins' home last week was well attended.

A week ago Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Davidson got a surprise visit from their nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kelling, of Estavan, Sask. They also called on other relatives.

Mrs. Selby Barker of Aurora also visited Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Davidson the same weekend. The Women's Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Percy Brown on Tuesday, May 20, at 2.30 p. m.

Bible study at Mr. Bernard Davidson's home this week had quite a number present.

Most farmers had visitors on Mother's Day.

TEMPERANCEVILLE

On Sunday, May 11, a Mother's Day service was conducted by the Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. Wilbert Jennings. It was very gratifying to have so many families attend. Miss Florie Beynon and Mrs. Burton Palmer read appropriate stories. The junior girls, consisting of Misses Elsie Anderson, M. Morris, Donna Jennings, Patsy Macklin and Clara Herrima, sang. Miss Joan Hare read a poem and Sharon Palmer sang. The guest speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. Ernest Moddle, whose wonderful words of inspiration to the parents and children will long be remembered. A lovely bouquet of spring flowers was presented to Mrs. Moddle for her work with the junior congregation on Sunday evenings and for this wonderful address by Miss Donna Dixon. Miss Isabel Morrison read the words of presentation.

JR. AUXILIARY

The Junior Evening Auxiliary, W.M.S. Trinity United church, Newmarket, will meet at the home of Mrs. Ernest Hill, 11 Lorne Ave., on Tuesday, May 20, 8 p.m. All members are reminded to bring articles for the "Buy and Sell" sale. A cordial invitation is extended to all junior ladies of the congregation to attend.

GUIDE COOKIE DAY

Saturday, May 17, is cookie day for the guides and brownies of Newmarket. Any homemakers who were missed when the girls conducted their house-to-house canvass to order cookies are requested to phone Mrs. Thompson, 1130-R or Mrs. Wass, 362W before Saturday. Money raised through the sale of these cookies in the Guide trefoil design is used for the Newmarket girls in guides and brownies. They number about 100.

CLUBS OBSERVE B. AND P. WEEK

Business Women's Week is being celebrated by the Newmarket Business and Professional Women's club with all B. and P. clubs throughout Canada May 19 to 24. The slogan for Business Women's Week is "Keeping Pace With Canada".

The Newmarket club has a membership of over 40 women and has been active in valuable service work in Newmarket.

There are 68 Business and Professional Women's clubs in Ontario with a total membership of over 3,000. Each member of each club is also a member of the Canadian Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs represented in every province with a membership of over 6,000.

Business Women's Week was first celebrated in the United States in 1928. When Ontario Business and Professional Women's clubs decided to hold a Business Women's Week, they had an idea that a function could be served; with the growing influence of women in political and economic life, B. and P. clubs everywhere are doing what they can to inform their members of the issues of the day, locally, provincially and federally, and with an eye on the international scene.

These women feel it highly important that their sex use the franchise intelligently and have informed opinions of issues which concern all segments of society. Members are kept abreast of current questions and in so doing, they feel they are discharging one of the duties inherent in citizenship.

TO MAKE BICYCLES SAFER AT NIGHT

Scotchlite tape for the bicycles of elementary school children in Newmarket has been left at the schools this week. Youngsters are reminded to bring their bicycles to the school they attend if they need this safety tape. All receiving the tape are requested to pay 25 cents per bicycle.

This Scotchlite tape is a safety feature instigated in Newmarket by the Home and School association last year. A reflector-type material, the tape clearly marks bicycles so that at dusk or at other times the bikes are more readily visible to motorists. The application of the safety tape to the bicycles was accompanied by a visit to the schools of Chief Burbridge who spoke on safety practices on the street and at home.

PLAN TRIP TO SEE NIAGARA GARDENS

A trip to the Niagara Falls Parks' school for nurserymen and horticulturalists has been proposed for the members of the Newmarket Horticultural Society. At the school can be seen the species of flowers, shrubs, hedges and trees which are hardy to our climate. A conducted tour of the greenhouses, grounds and school could be arranged if enough of the local members were interested.

From this school graduate the specialists in the field of horticulture and visits from provincial societies are welcome. Anyone interested in such a trip is requested to contact the Newmarket society's president, Mrs. Nelson Ion—993.

Optimists At Work
 Newmarket Optimists, who sponsored pee-wee and bantam baseball teams last season, will continue their sponsorship of the two teams this summer, reports Don Warner, boys' work chairman. Frank Hollingsworth, who guided the pee-wee team through to the Ontario finals, will coach both teams again this season. The initial bantam practice was held Friday night at Stuart Scott diamond with 35 reporting. Saturday morning, 60 turned up for the pee-wee practice. Further practices are due this week.
 Optimist bantams have been grouped with Richmond Hill, Lake Wilcox, Aurora, Mount Albert and Sutton in the newly organized North York Minor Baseball League. On completion of the league, they'll go on into the O.B.A. playdowns. Local pee-wees will seek exhibition games with Aurora and Sutton previous to O.B.A. entry.
 At the Optimists Club annual meeting last week, Ken Stephens was named boys' work chairman. Ken will work along with Don Warner until July 1, when he assumes full responsibility.

Lake Jr. Ladies' League
 Seven teams, Mount Albert, Belhaven, Sutton, Keswick, Newmarket, Aurora and Queensville will make up the Lake Simcoe Junior Ladies' League roster for the 1952 season. Aurora and Queensville were accepted for league membership at the annual meeting in Keswick Tuesday. Stan, Beechner of Sutton is president and Beverley Heaton of Keswick secretary-treasurer. Team delegates will meet again Tuesday, May 20, in Keswick at 8 p.m. Each team must present a players' list for inspection on that date.

HASHMAN AWARD
For Mid-Season Pitching
 Pitching and pitchers, to be quite truthful, did not steal the show as the town league teams kicked the door ajar on their initial twin-bill of the season Wednesday. Pitchers in fact were knee deep in aspirin before the lights went out.
 There was one exception, Bill VanZant. Toeing the rubber for Hoffman's, Bill proceeded to whistle the apple by Sports-Cycle Shoppers in mid-season form. Two hits was all the tamed Cycle whiz-kids could turn in to the scorer all night. Cycle did speed the bases for four runs but not a one of these runs was earned.
 You can readily see Bill VanZant's chucking was a feature and for his two-hit effort, we're naming him Roxy Theatre pass and Hashman award winner for this week.

Haskett's
HASH
 BY GEORGE HASKETT
 Newmarket Sports Editor

Need some help from you this week. What can we do about 100 boys? That's the number of small fry, give and take one or two either way, wishing to play baseball this summer. How do we arrive at this figure? Thirty-five were out to bantam practice Friday and an amazing 60 Saturday morning for pee-wee.
 Give them all a chance? Thank you, that's exactly how this paragraph feels about it. Course you know it's going to cost money for equipment, etc., but we'll all fork over dough for sidewalks, roads, bridges, etc., so why not for the kids.
 The Hub, we'll stand corrected if anyone can prove otherwise, spends less than any town of comparable size in the country seeing the kids are kept busy and out of mischief. Except for the work of our eager-beaver Optimist Clubbers over the past couple of ball and hockey seasons, minor sports would have gone to pot locally.
 Optimists will be back in pitching with two teams—that handles 30 boys—leaving 70 boys with no baseball. Answer is a town league and if we intend to keep those 70 busy we will have to appoint a summer recreation director. Don't have to look beyond the town limits for one. There's a chap right in our midst who can handle it. Man we have in mind is Frank Hollingsworth. Frank has a knack of getting the boys to do things and his coaching record with the pee-wees—they reached the Ontario finals under the Optimists banner—speaks for itself.
 Now, you'll ask who should take the initiative in appointing a recreation director? The answer is the Recreation Commission. This paragraph was invited to Commission gathering Tuesday. Arrived at 7:30—three members present—fourth arrived a little late—unavoidably delayed—so your scribe didn't have his innings to scribble his cracks about the Commission lately. So we'll just note our observations and gleanings picked up along the sport beat.
 Have been making enquiries on the subject past few weeks—here's some of answers received from various sportsmen—and we think they speak for themselves: What Recreation Commission? Is there one? Didn't know we had one! Thought they were dead and buried! What do they do?
 Checking the town financial statement, Commission in 1951 received $900 from the town and $261 from the provincial government. This is wholly inadequate to pay a recreation director and possibly answers the above questions.
 As to what the Commission could do, off hand we can think of four places aid is needed: the intermediate baseball, could stand financial assistance; ditto junior ladies; midjet baseball requires organizing and financial help; and the soccerists, trying to get rolling, wouldn't turn up their nose at some help.

Enlarge Tennis Classes
 Keith Davis, Newmarket's Mr. Tennis, sends along a reminder that his instruction classes for junior players opens Tuesday, May 20, at 6:30 p.m. and will run each Tuesday and Thursday thereafter. In answer to a number of requests Mr. Davis will broaden his instruction classes to take in intermediate members. Latter classes will run from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday evenings commencing May 20. Everyone is welcome.
 Work at the tennis courts is proceeding satisfactorily under the direction of Charles Lee and John McGuire. Courts should be ready for use this weekend.

Minors Open Next Week
 Everything points to a busy season in North York minor baseball. The six-team bantam and three-team midjet North York Minor Baseball League season will open next week.
 Mount Albert, Sutton and Aurora drew home openers in bantam. Bill Mundell's Aurora Cubs will visit Sutton May 19 to get the Green Sox season underway. Sutton will play in Aurora Wednesday, May 21. Mount Albert will be at home to Richmond Hill May 20.
 In the only midjet game carded for next week, Lake Wilcox will journey to Richmond Hill May 19 to get the Hillers officially started. Newmarket fans will have to wait until May 29 to see the Optimists make their initial home stand against Lake Wilcox.

DOWN THE CENTRE BY AB HULSE
Soccer Effort Recalls Memories
 From the past tense: The revival of soccer in Newmarket is to be commended although it is around 25 years since there was a town team, with the exception of Newmarket Camp eleven. Probably the greatest club the town ever had, according to all reports, was that of fifty-nine years ago. They won district honors.
 Here's the team roster and you'll recognize many family names: Jack Smith, Alex McClelland, Charlie Flood, Norm Rogers, Sam Gibeney, Ivan Clarke, Ed Irwin, J. E. Dickson, Walter Cain, Tom Doyle, Charlie Montgomery, A. A. Hollingshead, Walter Rolling, Joe Clarke, and D. A. McCrimmon. The late Walter Rolling of King, who was a school master, was probably the greatest soccer player to ever play in the district and he could hold his own in international company.
 It wouldn't be too hard to re-organize soccer on a district basis. There's plenty of material at Aurora, Maple and King, and Bradford are going already. A steady influx of Old Country folk adds to the possibility. There's another challenge for fellows like

Mr. A. Legion At Work
 Mount Albert has tossed its hat in the baseball ring. The Mount Albert branch of the Canadian Legion are sponsoring a bantam baseball team. The newly organized club has been entered in the North York minor baseball league.
 Opposition for the Mountie bantams will be provided by Newmarket, Sutton, Lake Wilcox, Aurora and Richmond Hill. Kelly Case, Morley Case, Gregg Scott and Art Westgarth are Legion appointees to get the team started.
 As yet, no coach or manager have been appointed but this necessary business will be concluded this week. To date, one practice has been held with 18 boys reporting for a try-out. Further practice sessions are due this week in preparation for the Mounties' home opener against Richmond Hill May 20.
 Legion sponsors are happy about the turn-out and the interest being shown in the team. Good fan support will make it a success, they report.

Split Simcoe Loop
 South Simcoe baseball league delegates, meeting last Thursday at Beeton, revised their plans for the 1952 season. In a move designed to slice travelling, time and overhead, delegates voted to split the 12-team group into a north and south section of six teams each.
 Newmarket's new entry will be grouped with Bradford, Beeton, Alliston, Everett Maple Leafs and Palgrave in the southern division.
 Six north division teams are Ivy, Stroud, Barrie, Thornton, New Lovell and Everett Athletics. Southern section teams will play a double home and home schedule.
 Top four teams in each division will qualify for the semi-finals. Winners in each division will meet in a best four out of seven series for the league title and the Davis Memorial Trophy.
 League schedule is being set up at the present time with the opener scheduled for the week of May 19. Newmarket have requested Friday night for their home games.

PLAY-OFFS OR BUST
 Vandroft softballers have just missed the Lake Simcoe Softball League play-offs by a whisker past two seasons. They'll be back trying again this season with one idea: "make the play-offs or bust." The team held its first practice last week with fairly good turn-out, several new prospects. Doug Alcorn is coach, pitcher Harold Botham manager and Ivan Pattenden secretary-treasurer at a recent meeting. Further practices are planned for this week.

Brownhill Unbeaten Still
 Smashing a bushel of hits and runs in every innings, Murray Edgar's Mount Zion Ramblers doused Queensville 17-6 last Friday to record their first win of the East Gwillimbury School League season. Mount Albert hit for their second win, dumping Hope-Union 13. Combines 13-8. Brown Hill continued their unbeaten pace after the league as they knocked off Sharon 17-8. It was Brown Hill's third win in as many attempts.
 A full list of games are scheduled for attention Friday afternoon.

QUEENSVILLE LADIES
 Queensville is planning to have a junior ladies' softball team this season. Their entry was accepted by the Lake Simcoe Junior Ladies' League at the annual meeting Tuesday. Wilbur Beckett is heading the drive to organize the team and is slated to look after the coaching.

Four-Team School League
 Frame work for a four-team public school pee-wee baseball league was set up this week. Four teams are Leafs, Royals, Chiefs and Cubs. Double-headers will be played each Saturday morning. First game of the double header will start at 9:45 a.m., second game at 11 a.m.
 Best players from the four teams will be chosen to represent Newmarket in the O.B.A. pee-wee playdowns. Every player will have an equal chance to make the O.B.A. representative team.
 Schedule is: May 17, Leafs vs Royals, Chiefs vs Cubs; May 24, Leafs vs Cubs, Royals vs Chiefs; May 31, Royals vs Cubs, Chiefs vs Leafs; June 7, Cubs vs Chiefs, Royals vs Leafs; June 14, Chiefs vs Royals, Cubs vs Leafs; June 21, Leafs vs Chiefs, Cubs vs Royals.
 First team mentioned is the visiting team and will bat first. Games will be 5 innings at least and seven if possible.

Team rosters are:
 Leafs: How, Brice, Jack Gunn, Alb. Breckon, Brian Orton, Bob Byers, Len Abbott, Jim Lake, Brent MacNab, Dave McComb, Bill Daly, Ralph Bray, Paul Brammer, Don Bone.
 Royals: Gary Campbell, John McKnight, John Lake, Jim Bond, Ralph Emmerson, John Guillems, Tony Brookes, Dennis Edwards, Reg. Peterson, Ian Dick, Bill McComb, Jim McArthur, Gord Vaughan, Wayne Crouch.
 Chiefs: Bill Bellar, Ron Wrightman, Paul Blair, Barton Sedore, Peter Vale, Jim Tunney, Dave Townsley, Francis Garrett, Barry Emmerson, Jack West, Bob Kefter, Larry Morton, Don Cook, Larry Bone.

ON THE ALLEYS
 The bowling season is drawing to a close. Two feature attractions last week kept a number of bowlers going strong. First on the agenda was the play-off session for the Monday Night Ladies' League title. The sudden-death fixture was required as Four-Fifties came on with a late rush to tie the Coons on the final night of league action. Monday's saw-off was a triumph for Four-Fifties as they went to town in a big way to pile up a 3002 count as against 2866 recorded by the Coons.
 Alice Gibson came up with a nifty 587 (164-147-276) to lead. Floss Gibson 581, Jeanne Gatti 553, Audrey Stevens 554, Ethel Warden 500. Four-Fifties' winning sextette were Audrey Stevens, Edna McGrath, Lill Watt, Floss Gibson, Muriel Gunn and Ethel Warden. The gals turn to the knife and fork league this week in Toronto to officially close their season.

Four Teams in Gals' Loop
 Four teams, Schomberg, Kettleby, Bradford and Beeton, have entered the York-Simcoe ladies' softball league race. League organization meeting was held at Elgin Hastings' residence Schomberg, last Thursday. Hastings was returned as president and Ray Rogers, Kettleby's busy softball promoter, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.
 Delegates voted to purchase a pennant and that, along with the York-Simcoe Trophy, will give the teams added incentive to get out and win. League schedule opens May 22 with Bradford at Beeton. May 23, Schomberg, defending champions, will play in Kettleby.

Dempsey Coming
 Wrestling returns May 24 to the Newmarket Memorial Arena. Opening card promises to be something of a mat classic. Hold steady now while we give you the good news. First, and this is a first for Newmarket, Jack Dempsey, ex-heavyweight boxing champion of the world, will be on hand. Dempsey will referee the main bout.
 The main bout is Yukon Eric, the North Country's strongman, meeting Jim "The Bull" Wright, the Montana hills wild man. The main bout will be the best two out of three falls. A high quality supporting card of two other bouts is being lined up.
 In last week's report of wrestling nights, June 14 was mentioned. It should have read June 21.

ZEPHYR BLUES BACK IN
 Other teams please note: Zephyr Blues will be back in the Lake Simcoe Softball League this season to defend the championship and Stan Cook Trophy won the past two seasons. "If anything, we'll be a bit stronger than last year," reports coach Ches. Lunney. Cec. Harrison is secretary-treasurer.

Uxbridge Voters Say "No" Good Show For Dog Owners Powerful Movie At Royal

The Citizens' Association (We Vote "No"), which is working for the cause of keeping liquor and beer outlets out of Aurora, has good reasons for feeling well pleased with the news from Uxbridge, where a "No" vote has been declared. This is in line with the recent "No" vote at Dundalk.

This is a democratic country where each citizen has a right to his and her opinion and where the rule of the majority prevails.

Thus we are entitled to our own opinion, which we made very clear at the outset of the campaign by the Liquor and Beer committee; and since the Citizens' Association (We Vote "No") came into being on April 6 we have felt that a constant repetition of our views was unnecessary.

Loud Noises Under Cover!

There has been one exception to an otherwise clean campaign, and that from a source where decent procedure should normally be expected. The Aurora Banner has tried to "stir up the dirt" by printing suggestions that our opposition to the outlets derives from a wish to benefit Newmarket at the expense of Aurora.

While we are sure that we are well enough known to the citizens of Aurora to find it unnecessary to defend ourselves against such an odious untruth, the fact that such "dirt" can be imported on to the editorial page of what is called the "home-town paper" reveals the depths to which certain mental types can descend.

The citizens of Aurora have been reading our writings for nearly three years, and they have seen what our attitude has been on many local questions. They are hardly likely to place much value on the loud noises of a newcomer who does not himself take a positive stand.

Meanwhile the Liquor and Beer committee has engaged a portion of the town hall for a period of three weeks for the purpose of their campaign for the outlets.

District Kennel Club

We have received from Mr. A. R. Sacre, honorary secretary of the Aurora District Kennel Club Inc., some interesting data in connection with the club and the all-breed International Dog Show which is to be held at the Aurora Armories on Saturday, May 17.

The club was founded in 1951 by a few enthusiastic dog owners and breeders in the district, its objects being to promote a general interest in purebred dogs and, if possible, in some small way to assist financially in furthering any worthy local project. That is what Mr. Sacre tells us and the success enjoyed by the club last year bears testimony to the information given us.

For example, out of the proceeds of last year's show the club was able to send a cheque for nearly $100 to the Aurora Lions club. Fifty percent of whatever profits are realized this year will be handed over to the York Rangers stationed at Aurora, to be used for the Other Tanks' mess fund.

The Kennel club is a non-profit undertaking and no member of it can derive any financial benefit from its activities, as directed by the club's charter.

Entries are excellent this year, Mr. Sacre informs us, amounting to 300 to 350 and will range in type from the Chihuahua to the Great Dane. Included in the entries are an Irish Wolfhound and a Bloodhound, and a great variety of sporting dogs, toys, terriers, etc., etc.

The judges this year will be columns, the show will start at both from the United States. As indicated in our Coming Events columns, the show will start at 10 a.m. and continue throughout the day, Saturday, May 17, until 9 p.m. We hope the weather will be good and the show enjoy another great success.

"Come Fill The Cup"

We have not been writing about the Royal theatre for some time. In fact for more than a week we have been writing very little about anything in consequence of being tied up at home with a severe chill and its aftermath. We are somewhat slowly pulling ourselves together again and making contacts with a world which we have been grudgingly separated from. It is good to see familiar faces again.

During the past few weeks the reputation of the Royal theatre has maintained the standard Mr. Clifford Griffiths has given it for fine showings, and on Wednesday, May 21, a remarkable movie is being presented under the title, "Come, Fill The Cup."

James Cagney will play the star role in a motion picture which has been acclaimed as one of the all-time high achievements in screen history. It is described as Cagney's greatest triumph and co-starring with him is Phyllis Thaxter.

From what we have heard of this movie to be shown on Wednesday, May 21, we can recommend our adult readers to see a powerfully realistic portrayal of moral decline and eventual regeneration. It should be noted that this is a movie strictly for adults only.

Parks Board

The question of bulldozing that portion of McMahon park immediately north of the Lawn Bowling club's premises was introduced at the last meeting of the Recreation commission, when a request from the Parks Board that the commission would undertake the job came before it.

The commission rejected the request, claiming the matter was one for the town council. The point was made, however, that the number of children using the park was not sufficient to justify the expense, and we agree that that is so. We consider it will be a great pity, and a waste of money, if the Parks Board bulldozes what is essentially a green belt.

We heard an even more fantastic story to the effect that the board proposed to bulldoze and level the strip of land south of the bowling greens, for the purpose of laying out a parking space. A year or two ago there was a large number of fine shrubs growing there, but the council of that time let the weeds grow so tall that when municipal employees were sent to clean it up they couldn't see the shrubs for the overgrowth and cut down the whole works.

When the deed was done the council promptly blamed the workmen for the massacre of the shrubs instead of taking the blame for their own neglect.

There are very few children using the area and when the months of July and August come along the place is deserted. All the Parks Board need to do is to keep the grass cut at the north and south points of the bowling greens, and to seed and tidy up the fine space south of the tennis courts. The practice has been to let the weeds in all their manifold variety grow to flowering point and then cut them down and leave them where they fell.

This portion of McMahon park south of the tennis courts makes an ideal parking spot for visiting bowlers, and if some seeding were done, the grass kept short and the place kept tidy, no more is needed. Lawn Bowling Begins

Some members of the Aurora lawn bowling club were in action as early as the last two weeks in April, a record we are told. Frank Bray of Oshawa has been appointed caretaker and the greens are looking good. Salute from Keswick

We knew we had some readers at Keswick and one of them, Mr. H. M. Marshall, representative for the Fuller Brush company, came in and handed us a year's subscription the other day. He said he liked the "frank opinions" in the Era and Express and Aurora News Page. His valued subscription gave concrete proof of the kind things he said.

DOING IT FOR NOTHING!

One argument we have heard is that men who serve on public bodies, and do so without payment, should not be subject to criticism. "We're doing it for nothing," they protest, "so why should we expect to be criticized?" It is a plausible argument that won't stand up to examination.

Take a town council representative, for example. Nobody would say that a member of council who receives $5 a night for his services is being overpaid, with sessions lasting for four hours and occasionally longer. In the Old Country, by the way, members of councils never received one penny of payment. There, service on a council was purely voluntary, and a man was proud to serve his community, often with plenty of press criticism thrown in for good measure.

A man who decides to offer his services to his community, say as a member of a town council, is asking the electors for a vote of confidence in his ability to serve them. A number of motives may inspire his action. One of them may be self-glory, or the satisfaction of the ego. In these instances criticism will always be resented, for the reason that it robs the recipient of some of his self-assurance, his conceit in his self-importance. That is a salutary process!

Another man wants to get onto council in order to benefit his community, i.e., better roads and sidewalks; better assessments and lower taxes; improved building regulations and their impartial enforcement; and, above all, the promotion of an ever-increasing public interest in all matters that come before council. He is the better type of public representative who welcomes rather than resents criticism.

No man in public life can ever claim that he gets nothing out of it. In the end, however, he will only get out of it what he puts into it. If it amounts to no more than a little self-glory, it could be that that is all he ever wanted in the first place.

"TWO-BIT MINDS"

As might be expected, the Aurora Banner defends the $800 grant to the planning board. Those who oppose it have a "two-bit mind", proclaims the "home-town" organ of wisdom. On the vote of council that would include Councillors Davis, Jones and Murray, and, outside of council, ourselves and others. Mr. Jones is a member of the planning board and did not think the grant necessary and voted against it.

At the inaugural meeting of council on January 7, Councillor Tucker expressed surprise that town employees could make purchases without vouchers. He called for a system that would authorize purchases being made only by vouchers. But Councillor Tucker pressed for an $800 grant to the planning board without even a hint on what the money was to be used. At least the town employee knew what he was going to buy even though he hadn't a voucher. The planning board was authorized to spend $800 without saying what they were going to buy. Where is Councillor Tucker's consistency?

Before the election we heard a prominent candidate say that if he were elected he would never agree to the planning board having more than $50, to cover postage and stationery. He was elected and was silent when the $800 was passed. Where is the consistency? At least he didn't defend the $800. He just stayed mum!

The planning board has already spent over $5,000. It asked for a further unscheduled $800 and got it. The Aurora Banner wouldn't hand over $800 without knowing why. But taxpayers who ask questions have "two-bit minds". That's what the Banner says. But who believes the Banner?

PRINCIPLE VS EXPEDIENCY

The freedom of the press to report events and state opinions is basic to the democratic way of life. When that freedom is tampered with the rights of the people are challenged and their privileges endangered. A free press is the people's most powerful safeguard and when its functions are curtailed freedom itself is on the decline.

It is a first principle of a free press to be critical in the public interest. This fundamental essential was defended by one of Canada's foremost statesmen and greatest thinkers, John G. Diefenbaker. Mr. Diefenbaker stated it in these words: "When criticism ends," he said, "freedom dies".

There are all kinds of newspapers in Canada, as there are in the few remaining free countries of the world, and some of them are positive dangers to the very freedom they enjoy. They are dangerous because they are inept. Some are merely advertising sheets and offer no useful service as mediums of opinion to their communities. They are weekly testimonials to the mental impotence of their owners.

Others there are that thrive on an unscrupulous exploitation of the main chance. Professing a lofty concern for the unsuspecting community which, through no choice of its own, supports them, they are concerned only with what they can take out of it. Such papers are directed by mugwumps, and though the species is fortunately limited it can inflict great injury on a community's morale during such time as it enjoys its parasitic activities.

The only kind of free newspaper that matters is the one that will deal honestly by its readers, giving them the facts fully and frankly, even at the risk of losing a few dollars in the process. Actually such a risk is small, for the majority of readers will stand by and support a newspaper which they know is motivated by principle, not by expediency.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

Harris Choirs And Pupils Win Outstanding Successes In Contests At Festival

Remarkable results were achieved at Peel County Music Festival by pupils of Mr. Illyd Harris and choir under his conductorship. So outstanding were the renditions of the Aurora United church junior and senior choirs that adjudicators described them as "glorious performances" in the winning of their respective classes.

Once again the Harris choir and pupils have brought many prizes to Aurora. Outstanding was the winning of a vocal scholarship by Jean Barnes.

As the following list shows, there were a large number of winners in the gold, silver and bronze medalist classes. A performance of great merit was that of Dawna Case in a competition in a girls' class under 14, when she received the gold medal with a mark of 90.

Gold medalists: Margaret Barrager, girls under 15; Marilyn Allen, girls under 14; Dawna Case, girls under 13; Jean Barnes, girls under 11. Dawna Case and Marilyn Allen, gold medalists, girls' duet, under age 13.

Silver medalists: Hugh Gavannah, tenor, under 19; Janis Carter, contralto, under 19; Lorna Elmer, under 14; Lorna Elmer, girls under 13; Jean Barnes, girls under 12.

Bronze medalists: Mary

Stocks, contralto, under 19; Janis Carter, under 17; Patrick Green, boys under 13; Marilyn Allen, girls under 13; Margaret Barrager and Nancy Stocks, girls' duet, under age 15.

York Festival: Dawna Case, gold medalist, in class for girls under 14, with mark of 90. She was awarded a scholarship.

Marilyn Allen received silver medal in the same class with a mark of 88. Nancy Stocks, gold medal, girls under 14; Jean Barnes, gold medal, girls under 11.

Silver medalists: Margaret Barrager, girls under 15; Lorna Elmer, girls under 13.

Bronze medalists: Philippa Garstang, girls under 15; Marilyn Allen, girls under 14; Donna Yake, girls under 10.

Among the competing choirs, the Aurora junior church choir received the highest choral marks of 88 in the entire festival competitions.

Many tributes were expressed in regard to the outstanding performances of Mr. Harris' choir and pupils. One of the most eloquent of these tributes was contained in a comment by one of the adjudicators who said that "listening to the Aurora choir and vocalists provided one of those rare occasions when one just sat back and enjoyed himself."

The music festival was held in Brampton.

ARENA AFFAIRS

Misleading Banner Headline And Lack Of Full Report Does Disservice To Readers

A garbled account of what happened at the last meeting of the Recreation commission in last week's issue of the Aurora Banner omitted the material facts which Councillor Jim Murray brought to the attention of members, in his efforts to clarify essential matters obscured by what he fittingly described as a "smoke-screen".

Undependable as the Banner has become for accurate reporting, its account of what happened at the above meeting could not fail to induce readers to believe that Mr. Murray was defending himself, whereas the actual truth is that he was giving members associated with reports that had previously appeared in the Banner an opportunity to disassociate themselves from them.

This they did when the actual facts were made clear to them by Mr. Murray. But no reader could have derived this impression from what they read in last week's Banner.

Misleading Headline

The first blunder made by the Banner was in its headline which read: "Mr. Murray Attempts To Sell Idea Recreation Director Not Attacked." This headline emphasizes the suggestion that the Recreation director had been "attacked," whatever that might mean!

The truth is that references made to the Recreation director were concerned with the time taken up by his work for the commission and his major work at the rink. Councillor Murray was not alone in his comments made at council on the time so spent by the Arena manager, as the report of the council meeting would prove.

But the mayor and council agreed that there had been no criticism of the Arena manager in a personal way and to suggest otherwise is to cast an aspersion on a unanimous agreement.

But in fact there is no need at all further to discuss the Arena manager and Recreation director, whose projection into the discussion was a method of shifting criticism of the Arena board away from the limelight. It was not Mr. Perryment with whom Mr. Murray was directly concerned, but Mr. Underhill and old members of the Arena board, who brought upon themselves the charge of being "inactive" in rink affairs.

Let it be understood, once and for all, that Mr. Murray at no time has ever personally criticized the Arena manager; but when the Banner used the words, "Attacked," in its headline of last week it did a grave disservice both to the town and the people directly concerned. To broadcast the charge that someone has been "Attacked" suggests a possible serious situa-

Impressive Canadian Story Told At Hazelburn Farm

On Friday, in brilliant sunshine, at the lovely home of Mrs. Amelius Jarvis, Hazelburn farm, Yonge St. south, a large number of guests attended a Trend Tea, when the principal speaker was Mrs. Egmont Frankel of Toronto, president of the Toronto branch of the Canadian Cancer society and head of the women's services for Ontario.

Mrs. Frankel, who was introduced by Mrs. J. P. Crysdale, president of the Aurora unit, spoke for about half an hour. In her brilliant and impressive address, Mrs. Frankel traced the history of the movement in Canada for the discovery of cancer cases and the treatment of what she described as this "most insidious disease."

The speaker pointed out that there are now 75 organizations in Canada specifically concerned with cancer research and its treatment, nine of such centres being located in Ontario.

Compelling Facts

It was only three years ago, said Mrs. Frankel, that Trend Teas were initiated. At that time no more than 200 women were taking an active part in the movement, but today, in Toronto alone, that number had risen to the figure of 12,000.

Paying tribute to Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Frankel said she was "one of those wonderful women who had opened their homes for this work." Their immediate objective was to get everyone interested in the subject of cancer and its symptoms, since no one at any age could feel immune from its possible dangers.

Mrs. Frankel emphasized the need for noting any changes that took place in the body, such as unusual lumps or sores. None of these changes, said the speaker, might indicate the presence of cancer; but such changes ought never to be disregarded.

For those who could not afford medical examinations, or for other reasons might want a strictly private interview, Mrs. Frankel made reference to the "Little Red Door," situated at 809 Yonge Street. There enquirers would be welcomed by two graduate nurses and examinations carried out free.

BRAMPTON LESSONS TOLD TO AURORA

At a well-attended meeting of the Aurora Citizens Association (We Vote No) on Sunday evening the guest speaker was Mrs. R. B. Horwood, the chairman of the Brampton Committee for a no vote.

Mrs. Horwood warned the association meeting in Trinity Hall to "watch their step", for as she said, "You are up against big business, which is well organized to win the election if possible". She spoke of the very large number of out-of-town cars brought in to assist in getting out the Yes vote.

Mrs. Horwood urged that every vote be brought out. "In Brampton," she said, "1,400 people failed to vote. Many were lulled to sleep by over confidence."

But, she said, the most tragic news was that 70 ballots were spoiled—yes, a number sufficient to have won the election had they all been "no" ballots.

Voters were advised to use the pencil at the voting booth; to mark an "X" (not a cross) after the "No", and to keep the "X" well within the space allowed for it.

LITTLE RED DOOR

Mrs. Frankel paid tribute to what she described as the finest treatment centre in Canada, and possibly in the world, namely, at Saskatoon. It was their hope to emulate this achievement in Ontario.

The speaker thanked Mrs. Crysdale for her introduction and Mrs. Jarvis for making that fine gathering possible at her home.

AURORA CADETS 'FINEST' EVER SEEN

Citizens lined the Aurora Main street on Sunday afternoon, May 11, and were enthralled at the brilliant spectacle of marching cadets from St. Andrew's College and Aurora district high school.

The high school girls in large numbers, always good-looking and wonderfully smart, marched with impeccable precision.

The boys from St. Andrew's presented a striking display as they swung along Main street, led by their pipe band. The high school cadet corps was led by the high school trumpet band.

This assembly of the St. Andrew's cadet corps and the district high school cadet corps was a truly lovely picture on a truly lovely Sunday afternoon, evoking from one bystander the remark that he had "never seen a finer-looking bunch of boys and girls."

Members of the York Rangers were also present in the parade.

A service was held at the Aurora United church, conducted by an old Aurora boy, the Very Rev. Dr. Rowland Hill, who also delivered the sermon. The church was filled.

The salute at the post office was taken by Lt. Col. J. F. Westhead, O.C., the Queen's York Rangers, the Armories, Toronto, Mr. K. Ketchum and Mr. J. H. Knowles.

The Temperanceville branch met at the home of Mrs. Nelson Thompson on Wednesday, May 7. The roll call, "Something that interests us in our community", brought forth such answers as erosion, the young people, the church, the school, the difficulty in obtaining use of the telephone line, the Sunday school and W. I. work.

A donation of $10 was sent to the Institute for the Blind. After discussion, a vote was taken as to whether the meetings be held in the home or church. The "home" won by only one vote and those wishing to have a meeting during the year were given the choice of the month in which they wished to have it. The programs will be printed as soon as possible.

A current event read by Mrs. Wilbert Jennings told of a family in which the mother had become blind.

Mrs. Fred Boys led the group in community singing and Mrs. M. E. McClure as soloist sang "The Sunshine of Your Smile". Mrs. Fred Hare accompanied all selections on the piano.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Baycroft, district president of Centre York, was introduced by Mrs. Clayton Beynon. Mrs. Baycroft, who had recently returned from the conference at Guelph, told of a number of amusing incidents which occurred during the three days.

She spoke of the benefit derived from these conferences and how inexpensively the trip can be made. Mrs. Baycroft followed her informative remarks on W.I. work by an address on "The Home".

A family needs more than a house to live in—it must be made a home, a place of comfort, of love, of thoughtfulness and understanding, of Christian living, a place to find refuge in time of sorrow, and a place to show one's joys. All this can and should be accomplished, regardless of our financial standing. Do your best to make your house a home.

Mrs. Charles Henshaw, Mrs. Joseph Levison, Mrs. C. Beynon and the hostess served a delicious afternoon tea of sausage rolls, cookies and tea.

Sharon branch held their May meeting in Sharon hall with 23 present. Excellent reports were given by conveners. A donation of $25 is being given to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

Mrs. Ramsey displayed curtain material from which the hospital has asked the Institute to make 10 drapes for maternity wards. Mrs. Crose offered her home for making of same.

After a discussion on how we could improve our hall, it was decided we would buy curtains for the platform. Mrs. Kitley and Mrs. Osler will act as a committee to look after curtain material needed.

It was decided that we give Institute pins to those that have been members for five years instead of waiting for 10 years as was formerly the plan.

Mrs. Ramsay reported that $129.85 was collected for Red Cross.

A bus trip is being planned to Guelph for Institute members and families sometime in June.

Mrs. Osler gave an interesting talk on the conference she attended in Guelph.

The May meeting of the Elmhurst branch was held at the home of Mrs. Huskinson. Mrs. Ida Boynton gave a display of useful articles made from so-called discarded.

Our speaker was Miss Smythe of the Health Unit. She gave us full particulars of the work of this very helpful and necessary department especially in the care of pre-school age. Everyone was enthusiastic and looking forward to a good year's work and enlightenment.

The Belhaven branch met in the hall on Tuesday, May 6, with the president, Mrs. Anderson, in the chair. Thirteen members, seven visitors and 23 children were present. Roll call was answered by paying the fee. At the close of the business session, Mr. E. Symes of Sutton Ceramic factory gave a very interesting demonstration on the making of the different kinds of pottery. He showed the molds, the type of clay that was used and made one piece of pottery. He told how it was glazed and finished.

The pupils from Belhaven school favored the members with several numbers which they sang at Woodbridge musical festival. A lovely lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Dave Davidson, Mrs. Donald Morton and Mrs. Lloyd Kay.

BLIND CAMPAIGN RAISES $1,357

"The Newmarket and District Advisory Committee to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind is pleased to report that the annual campaign for funds has been very successful to date," said Mrs. J. E. Morris, chairman.

"In spite of the many appeals this spring, the people in Newmarket and the surrounding district were generous and sympathetic towards our campaign. There are still some of our regular contributors who have not as yet responded to this appeal. We would greatly appreciate it if they would do so, in order that we may close our books."

Throughout this district during the past two weeks Mrs. C. S. Gilbert, Mrs. J. W. Coates and Mrs. George Somerville assisted with the special canvass. On Saturday, May 3, Mrs. Elman Campbell and Mrs. Anton Czerneck, assisted by Miss Audrey Rowland, Mrs. Leslie Barber, Mrs. Laurina Stykes and Mrs. James Thornton, conducted the regular tag day.

"The reports have been very encouraging," said Mrs. Morris, "and we want to thank those who helped with this very worthy cause by contributing, to the boys and girls who tagged on Saturday and those who gave of their time also. Our funds to date are $1,357.37. Included in this is the Newmarket tag day receipts of $275.87, the largest tag results in many years. We are very grateful to those who were instrumental in helping the blind to learn to earn."

MRS. LAURA ROLLING, CORRESPONDENT, PHONE KING 8

Green's general store will re-open this weekend. Not a minute was lost after the fire which destroyed the downstairs living room, kitchen and upper storage room and contents last week. Willing workers cleaned up the debris. A band of helpers will have the interior freshly painted and set in order for a fire sale. The contents of both sections of the store were salvaged and it has been found that damage and loss is comparatively small considering the extent of the blaze.

But for the swift action of the village fire brigade, before the arrival of Aurora and Maple fire brigades, the loss would have been much heavier. Ivel Wood used Robb's garden hose to quell the blaze that broke out in the roof of the nearby Robb house. Scores of men, women and young people rallied to remove everything from the store, and all the furnishings and household effects from the upstairs living quarters.

"It was a magnificent public spirit and everyone seemed to keep his head on his shoulders," declared the Greens. King City Motors and Drinkwater Motors rushed to the scene with fire extinguishers. People worked with no thought of themselves.

Mr. Green intends to rebuild the fire-gutted rooms at the back of the store. Considerable damage was done to the roof of the main building. Mrs. Green was in Toronto at the time and did not see the results of the damage until late in the afternoon. She was not aware of the fire which broke out about 2.15 until George Harvey informed her at the bus terminal and brought her to King in his car. There was no lack of water for the fire departments once the booster pump was attached to the hydrants.

Wrestle at Aurora Carnival

The young boys of King City Wrestling Club will give a demonstration of their training under Coach Bob McLeod at Aurora Lions sports, fireworks display and carnival on Friday evening, May 23, in the town park. The amateur wrestlers will put on four or five bouts. This part of the show will require 30 minutes and Coach McLeod hopes many from King district will be there to cheer the local boys. Those taking part are Donald Gordon, Rodney Bell, John Rishborough, Ron Fox, Garry Galloway, Richard Chaplin and Glenn Judd.

Buy Cookies on May 17

King and Temperanceville Brownie Pack will sell cookies and deliver those ordered on official Cookie Day, Saturday, May 17. This is the only time the Guides and Brownie raise funds. The cookies are made in Guide trefoil design and are packaged 30 to a box. When a little girl in a brown uniform and hat appears, all smiles, at your door next Saturday, buy her cookies. It is the first time the newly organized pack has had Cookie Day.

While Mr. and Mrs. James Rock were on a recent visit to their daughter at Brampton, Mrs. Rock had an appendix operation at Peel Memorial Hospital. Mr. Rock was just recovering from a heart condition which followed their trip to Vancouver last summer. He was in bed for a long time on two occasions. Mrs. Rock was unable to attend the bazaar display and afternoon tea given by the W.A. of the United church last week of which she is an officer. She and her husband arrived home on Monday.

Successful at York Festival

Three Kettleby pupils of Miss Dorothy Armstrong who competed in the York Music Festival

val at Woodbridge last week brought credit to themselves and their teacher, Doris Wood, 9, placed fifth in a class of 26 for children 11 years and under in piano with 77 marks. In the piano class for 10 years and under, she came third in a class of 15, with 80 marks. In this same class Frances Schmidt, aged 10, and Janice Hodgson, 10, each won 75 marks.

Donald Rawlings, a student at Wycliffe College, Toronto, spent last week at home preparing for final examinations. He completes his first term this month. Ian Scott is completing examinations at Victoria College, pass arts course, this month.

Miss Esther Belton of Toronto was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Scott, Ian's parents, during the weekend. With his sister Mary, they called to see their brother David, 16, who has been staying at his grandmother's, Mrs. Jas. Hunter, at Lasky, recovering from a bad attack of tonsillitis. Ian will go to Picton O.T.C. camp this summer.

Mother's Day Christenings

The christening of children on Mother's Day is an impressive service and six were baptised by Rev. Martin Jenkinson last Sunday. Wearing a beautiful gown sent from England, John Frederick Bruce O'Brien, seven weeks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan O'Brien (Mary Smith), received baptismal rites at Lasky United Church at the afternoon service. The baby wore a sheer white embroidered robe in which his mother had been christened 21 years ago when she was six weeks old. It had been sent from Darlington, England, by Mrs. Jane Smith, grandmother of Mrs. O'Brien. A large congregation witnessed the service, including the child's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred O'Brien, and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Kathleen Smith. Also an aunt, Mrs. Gwen Smith Southwood, Aurora, and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Weldrick and Miss Betty O'Brien of Maple.

The bouquet of red tulips that adorned the church came from the garden of the Hunter family at Lasky and others were contributed by Mrs. Pearson Smeltzer for the congregation.

At Teston church in the morning, Mr. Jenkinson christened Helen Linda Robson, four months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Robson. The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson, Earl and Stewart, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Robson and several of their family were present. The ceremony also formed part of the regular church service and the choir sang, "When Mother Prayed". A basket of beautiful flowers given to the grandmother by her son Earl Robson and his wife Joan, was one of the floral decorations for the service.

During the afternoon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Camden, King City, their son David Robin, 7, and Judith Anne Wells, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wells, who is Mrs. Camden's sister, were christened by Rev. Jenkinson, after which he and Mrs. Jenkinson, and David and Judith's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Orvis of Cresswell, all formed the supper party. Lasky United Anniversary

On Sunday, May 25, Lasky United church anniversary will be held morning and evening with the minister, Rev. Jenkinson, in the pulpit. Kettleby choir is being invited for the morning service.

Organization for Eversley Sunday school on Sunday mornings is under way. There are a number of children who can attend and teachers and classes will be arranged very soon.

A Mother's Day colored film was shown at King and second King Baptist churches last Sunday when the special services were based on that thought. Rev. Mr. Smalley, the minister, was in the pulpit.

King United church service will commence on June 1 at 10 a.m., and Sunday school at 11 a.m.

K.C.A. Meet With Architect

Mr. E. Barnett, an architect, spoke on the proposed community hall at a meeting of King Community Association at the home of Mrs. A. E. Jarvis on Monday, May 12. He made some suggestion on the type of building. The association's chairman, Mrs. Ivan Specht, and the secretary, D. M. Findlay, were absent due to illness.

Representatives of the Legion branch and the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary, Joe McGrath and Mrs. Art Fleet, were also absent. It was agreed on a motion by W. E. Barker and seconded by R. H. McLeod, that "Mrs. Jarvis and M. H. Bell, the treasurer, tell the absent members the findings of the meeting and have Mr. Barnett visit the site of the proposed community hall".

Mrs. Geoffrey Beatty came to the meeting representing Kingcrafts organization.

Church Vacation School

On Thursday, May 22, a meeting to organize for the Church Vacation School, will be held in King Baptist church at 8 p.m. As this is a district project, all who are interested in carrying on the school again this coming July are asked to attend.

Building Program Extending

From the number of new houses under way this year, and building lots for sale, the population of the village and surrounding district is likely to increase sharply. In the Kingsview subdivision, developed by John Dew, he is building north of his present home. Wilfred Hare is getting along with his home. Mr. Bissett of Weston will build a granite front house and his friend, Mr. Ailles of Weston, intends to build. Others who have purchased lots in the subdivision are Mr. Davidson, Mr. Travis and Mr. Cockshutt of Toronto.

Farther east on King side road, Frank McCarthy excavated a basement but ran into quicksand and will have to dig his cellar farther north when machinery is available. He intends moving the old pioneer dwelling he now occupies to the new site. Originally the N. P. Crossley home on the farmhand, it has been found suitable for rebuilding.

When the survey is completed, Mr. Dew will install waterworks. He says there will be 25 acres in the main portion of the area and 15 acres to the rear which will likely be sold in acreages.

Mr. Dew has chosen family Christian names for the new streets. East and west will be Charles and Melrose. North and south the roads will be named James, after his young son who passed away, and John street, after his other son.

There is building south of the village on the fourth concession where Mr. Arthur Peck has sold an acre and a half to Mr. Mel. Weldrick of Maple, who will build a home, and Dale Agar of Richmond Hill has land from the Cadden property for garage and house. In the village proper, Mr. Morrison intends selling lots on the west side of Keele Street.

Mission Bazaar Display and Tea

The articles of clothing and quilts for a mission bazaar were on display at the King City United church last week when the Women's Missionary Society decided to have its membership and visiting societies share in the dedication of gifts that go to Alberta, B.C. and Smokey Lake, Alberta. It was the first bazaar display in the long history of the society which has sent out quantities of supplies year after year.

The bazaar was convened by Mrs. W. Carson and Miss Lena Cairns, veteran members of the W.M.S. There was a stock of good clothing for every age and a layette. A map showed where the supplies are forwarded. There were picture displays of work in the mission field.

"I must keep my cupboard well stocked for I never know when a call will come to outfit a child or a needy adult," said Mrs. L. D. Collette, Toronto Centre Presbyterian supply secretary. With her were others of the Presbyterian executive, Mrs. P. J. Lambert of Maple, vice-president; Mrs. J. E. Carson, Missionary Monthly and World Friend secretary; Mr. W. J. Card, second vice-president, and Mrs. A. C. Huston, Victoria Square, the guest speaker.

Mrs. M. R. Jenkinson presided and Mrs. I. L. Scott took the devotional. The dedication service was performed by the president, who said, "Distance and language are no barrier when prayer and gifts are borne aloft on wings of loving service."

Mrs. Gordon Orr sang and Mrs. Jack Clift played a violin solo. The accompanist for both was Mrs. Ewart Patton.

The speaker, Mrs. Huston, wife of Rev. A. C. Huston, Victoria Square, spoke on the experiences she and her husband had in the mission field at Nelson House, a far northern station of Manitoba in an Indian reservation where they labored five years out of the 17 they spent on Canadian mission fields.

The speaker described their work at Nelson House. "We cannot all serve on the mission field, but we can pray and continue to send out the much needed mission bales," she told her co-workers. The Hustons have 11-year-old Betty, an Indian girl, in their Victoria Square manse, whom they are raising.

At the conclusion of the talk, refreshments were served. The collection amounted to $18.15.

Heise-Laurett

Miss Mary Laurett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Laurett, and Kenneth Heise, Teston, were married on May 10 at the United church manse, King City, by Rev. Jenkinson. Their attendants were Frances McDonald and Peter Laurett, the bride's brother. A reception was held in Toronto after the ceremony.

Eversley Presbyterian W.M.S. has been set forward to May 28 because of the annual sectional meeting at Knox Vaughan church on May 21 when district societies will take part. Miss Ruby Walker, regional secretary, will address the morning session and Miss Laura Pellon, overseas mission secretary, will be the afternoon speaker.

All Anglican churches of the Toronto diocese are having a part in the centenary of the synod of the diocese and Rev. D. C. H. Mitchell and Mr. Jas. Keens expect to attend the banquet at the Royal York hotel on May 27. On June 1, All Saints' choir will participate in the general service at Maple Leaf Gardens, Toronto, when massed choirs, directed by Dr. Healey Willan, will be heard.

Among those of this district who attended the Cancer Tea last Friday at the home of Mrs. Amelia Jarvis, Yonge St., were Mrs. W. D. P. Jarvis, Mrs. A. E. Jarvis, Mrs. N. J. Coe, Mrs. G. M. Duncan, Mrs. W. F. Poag, Mrs. J. L. Grew, Mrs. E. B. Johnston, Mrs. Geo. Scott, Mrs. Cecil Summerfeldt (acting treasurer), Mrs. H. G. Ratcliffe, Mrs. A. E. Kelley, Miss Kay Clark, Mrs. Laura Rolling.

Mrs. Robt. Kemp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Green, and Mr. Kep, with Mr. and Mrs. W. Veres, Niagara Falls, came to help the Greens during the weekend, and on Monday morning a carload of Mrs. Green's family motored from Belleville to assist. They were Mrs. Gay, a sister-in-law, Mrs. McDonald, a sister, Mrs. McDonald, a niece of Mrs. Green, and her husband and little daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boys of Whitby were Sunday visitors of their mother, Mrs. Wm. Boys of Lasky.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCarthy on Sunday were her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Filfit, an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cave, all of Toronto. With their guests the McCarthy's served Sunday evening dinner.

Mrs. Alfred Gillham, 93, was visited by her family on Sunday, receiving flowers and presents, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Gould. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gillham, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gillham and Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Wickett found their mother in good spirits and fairly well.

Among the gifts received by Mrs. Edwin Robson from her family on Mother's Day were a gold wrist watch, a large basket of snapdragons and stocks, a basket of white snaps and red roses, and boxes of candy. The first basket was taken to Teston church on Sunday where her grandchildren, Helen Linda Robson, was christened. Visiting at the Robson home on Sunday were Mr. John Earl, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Robson and Mrs. Taylor, Toronto.

Mrs. T. L. Williams, president of Eversley W.M.S. and sectional vice-president, attended the annual meeting of section 1, West Toronto Presbyterian, at Oakville on May 7. She was accompanied by Mrs. John Phillips and gave greetings from her district. She will attend the annual convention of section 2 at Boston, near Milton, on May 14. On May 21, Mrs. Williams presides at the annual meeting of her section, at Knox church, Vaughan.

Mrs. Leonard Shropshire has been quite ill from an attack of quinsy and Mrs. Ivan Specht was suddenly taken down with "red" measles on Friday last. They are improving.

THE COW AT THE COUNCIL TABLE

The Reeve and Council were startled, but Jim explained. "Lactic acid from spilled milk is playing heck with my barn floor. I've brought Bessie along to bear me out."

"Moo-oo-oo!" said Bessie, meaning "You're darn right."

"Barnyard acid is doing the same to my floor," said Bob Harris, the garage owner.

It turned out that Tom Black, the photographer, Bill Short of the cooperative packing plant, Harry Smith, the laundry proprietor, Elmer Park of the sheet metal works, were all having acid trouble, too.

"Guess we were smart to put in Vitrified Clay Pipe for our town sewerage system," said the Reeve.

"No trouble with acids or corrosive waste there! Vitrified Clay Pipe gives permanent protection, because it's bonded by fire, inside and out. Good investment that was, eh Jim?" "Moo-oo-oo!" said Bessie, meaning "You bet your life!" 9-2
